

Field Trip to Guernica

The Dept of English , D.K College organised a field trip on 20/03/21 for 3rd sem major students to the notable Assamese film and tv serial director Himangshu Prasad Das , training centre 'Guernica Artists Factory', located in Borihat region. It was an educational trip intended to make the students aware of the practical aspects and other intricacies of a dramatic performance. They witnessed a special scene enacted by some young aspiring actors who alongwith others had come to Guernica from different districts of Assam for a 15 day workshop conducted by Mr Das. The students were enlightened after their interaction with Mr Das and his troupe of actors. Based on their interaction they were asked to prepare group reports for evaluation of various elements of drama which would enhance their knowledge. Total 33 were present.
