

Celebration of International Women's Day, 08/03/2014

The celebration of International Women's Day began with a cake cutting programme initiated by Dr. Nilufer Islam, Associate Professor, Department of English, D.K. College, Mirza. This programme was followed by lecture session in which members spoke on the significance of celebrating Women's Day. Two honourable colleagues, namely Prof. Madhuri Saikia and Prof. Barnali Kalita spoke at length about issues concerning women while touching the significance of celebrating the day as International Women's Day. To make the lecture session livelier, Dr. Namita Sarma and Dr. Deepalee Das Associate professors of Zoology department enthused the members with their selected songs and poems respective